

Mama Africa (Black Man)

Mama Africa

Your children are not bold enough

They are enslaved

They complain

They are killed

They complain

They are poor

They complain

Mama Africa

Your children are not strong enough

Black man

Black race

Wake up and show your strength

Black lives cannot matter

Unless we build Africa

Black lives cannot matter

Unless we stop killing each other

Black lives cannot matter

Unless we become one

Black lives cannot matter

Unless we become strong

When we are strong

No man

I repeat

When we are strong

No man

Will dare to show hatred towards us

Black is strong

Yet, he just wants to complain

I don't know

I don't know

May be complaining is part of his DNA

Mama Africa

Your children are not bold enough

They are enslaved

They complain

They are killed

They complain

They are poor

They complain

Mama Africa

Your children are not strong enough

Black man

Black race

Wake up and show your strength

Black man is strong physically

But he is enslaved mentally

He has shackles in his mind

Shackles of fear

Shackles of bad leadership

Shackles of poverty

Shackles of religion

Shackles of self-hatred

Shackles of tribalism

Shackles of racism

Break all those shackles

And be free

Break all those shackles

And be free

Black is strong

Yet, he just wants to complain

I don't know

I don't know

May be complaining is part of his DNA

Mama Africa

Your children are not bold enough

They are enslaved

They complain

They are killed

They complain

They are poor

They complain

Mama Africa

Your children are not strong enough

Black man

Black race

Wake up and show your strength

Won obi baba nla enikan da

Kowo ile alagbara pe oun amu ni eru

You cannot enter a strong man's house

And make him a slave

So, what happened to us Africans?

If truly we were strong

We should never have been enslaved

ROAR!

Let your men arise!

ROAR!

Let your woman arise!

ROAR!

Let the black race arise!

Let the bell of freedom rings!

Black is strong

Yet, he just wants to complain

I don't know

I don't know

May be complaining is part of his DNA

Mama Africa

Your children are not bold enough

They are enslaved

They complain

They are killed

They complain

They are poor

They complain

Mama Africa

Your children are not strong enough

Black man

Black race

Wake up and show your strength
