

Give Thanks

Sometimes life becomes really hard
No place to lay my head
No food to eat
All my friends run away from me
No matter what, I will still God thanks
Join me.....

Let's give thanks to the Lord
Forget your sorrows, stay strong
One day your tears will end
One day your tears will end
Let's give thanks to the Lord
Forget your sorrows stay strong
One day your struggles will end
One day your struggles will end

Life is not a rosy journey
Good days and bad ones
Focus on your blessings and not your struggles
There is hope in the future
For me, for you and for everyone
Brother, wipe your tears, sister cry no more
I know it is not easy
But God will see us through

Together, let's count our blessings
One day our tears will turn to joy, join me and sing

Let's give thanks to the Lord
Forget your sorrows, stay strong
One day your tears will end
One day your tears will end
Let's give thanks to the Lord
Forget your sorrows stay strong
One day your struggles will end
One day your struggles will end

Be grateful if you are alive
Count your blessings now
Be grateful if you are alive
Count your blessings now
Be grateful if you are alive
Count your blessings now
Be grateful if you are alive
Count your blessings now
Be grateful if you are alive
Count your blessings now
Be grateful if you are alive
Count your blessings now
Let your mind be at rest and believe till the end
May be God will look down
May be God will look down
Then He will see you praising Him
And that will move God to fight for you
Miracle is on the way
On the way

One day you will smile

You will smile

Let's give thanks to the Lord

Forget your sorrows, stay strong

One day your tears will end

One day your tears will end

Let's give thanks to the Lord

Forget your sorrows stay strong

One day your struggles will end

One day your struggles will end

Let's give thanks to the Lord

Forget your sorrows, stay strong

One day your tears will end

One day your tears will end

Let's give thanks to the Lord

Forget your sorrows stay strong

One day your struggles will end

One day your struggles will end

Give Thanks (115)
